

Center for Leadership Commitment Form

The Program's Commitment

The Center for Leadership will provide faculty, as well as some meals and program materials. It will also provide continuing education where applicable.

The Center for Leadership will be administered and coordinated by LeadingAge Kansas.

Sponsoring Organization's Commitment

If selected, the Kansas Fellow's institution or the participant agrees to:

- Provide travel and lodging costs associated with the program.
- Support the Kansas Fellow as necessary with the completion of assignments that will enhance the understanding and application of the content areas of each session.
- Allow the Kansas Fellow's time at ALL learning sessions, to connect with coach, and actively participate in distance learning activities.
- Provide time and support for the Kansas Fellow to develop and execute their Action Learning Process.

Enrollee Commitment

If selected, the participant agrees to:

- Attend each of the two-day sessions -- no exceptions unless a letter is written by the sponsoring organization to LeadingAge Kansas. Participation is required to graduate from the program.
- Complete assignments to enhance the understanding and application of the content areas.
- Regularly connect with LeadingAge Kansas Staff/Design Team to discuss assignments, on-going development, and additional professional development opportunities.
- Actively participate in regular 60 minute conference calls with your group and assigned coach.
- In order to be a Center for Leadership participant, you must remain employed with a LeadingAge Kansas member for the duration of the program. If extenuating circumstances arise, LeadingAge Kansas will review on a case by case basis.
